

Letter of Intent

Between the City of Tampere 0211675-2 and the City of Helsingborg 212000-1157 (mutually referred to as the Parties) regarding collaboration around, Urban Brilliance during the first week of H22 City Expo.

Background

H22 – A smarter city

Helsingborg: a creative, vibrant, global, united and balanced city. The City of Helsingborg has recently – as a result of an overarching investment in clear, visionary leadership – won acknowledgement in several areas. Sweden's IT municipality 2015, Growth municipality of the year 2016, Sweden's Environment municipality 2017, 2018 and 2019, Quality municipality of the year 2017, runner up in Icapital 2021 and finalist in Green Capital 2023, among many others. Now we're taking things a step further.

The years leading up to H22 has been marked by determined work from local, national and international figures and organisations, both in and outside of Helsingborg.

With the international H22 City Expo we are inviting the world to Helsingborg. For 35 days H22 City Expo will be a vibrant arena for sustainable change and best practices, with collaborators from all parts of society, from local to international level.

H22 Urban Brilliance

During the first week of the H22 City Expo (30 May – 2 June), Helsingborg will offer a total of ten other cities a prime location where they can showcase their most groundbreaking innovations and best practices in tackling global challenges at a local level.

The cities contribute by showcasing a concentration of the most exciting developmental work, the sharpest questions, formats, ideas and solutions. Being part of H22 Urban Brilliance is a way to position oneself as an active part of sustainable development and smarter cities.

Collaboration between the parties

The parties are interested in collaborating around Urban Brilliance during H22 City Expo.

The City of Tampere aims to be one of the cities during Urban Brilliance. The details of the collaboration will be developed after this letter of intent has been signed. The City of Tampere and the City of Helsingborg, possibly through the municipal company Helsingborg Arena & Scen AB, hereby commence discussions with the goal of regulating the parties' respective rights and responsibilities in relation to the collaboration. The Parties hereby declare that they understand that there will be no financial transactions between the parties.

The parties furthermore understand that a letter of intent is not a legally binding document and that no claims can be directed at the other party with regards to this letter of intent.

This letter of intent shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of Sweden, without regards to its conflict of laws provisions.

Two copies have been created of this letter of intent, and each party has received a copy.
